DEFINITIONS	34
SIGNATORIES	38

This Agreement is between:

- (1) THE BRITISH BROADCASTING CORPORATION whose principal office is at Broadcasting House, Portland Place, London W1A 1AA (the “BBC”, which term shall where the context so permits include the BBC’s assignees and successors in title including without limitation BBC Studios or any successor to BBC Studios, other production entity or co-producer, distributor, licensee or broadcaster), and
- (2) THE MUSICIANS’ UNION, of 30 Snowfields, London. SE1 3SU (the “MU”)

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement sets out the minimum terms and conditions for:

- (i) the engagement of professional musicians who perform music for their livelihood, including instrumentalists, vocalists and Musical Directors (“Musician(s)”) to give Performances for inclusion in BBC Content;
- (ii) the use of BBC Content containing Performance(s) given under the terms of this Agreement;
- (iii) the Secondary Use of BBC Content containing Performances given in accordance with any, and all, previous agreements between the BBC and the Musicians’ Union (“Previous Agreements”); and
- (iv) the engagement of Contractors to procure the services of Session Musicians;
- (v) content made by BBC Studios for first exploitation by non-BBC Commissioners – see addendum below.

PURPOSE AND EFFECT OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall:

- (i) come into effect on 1st March 2023 (the “Commencement Date”); and
- (ii) replace all Previous Agreements with the Musicians’ Union concerning the subject matter of this Agreement; and
- (iii) continue to have effect unless or until terminated by either party giving six months’ written notice to the other. Neither party may give such notice before 1st October 2025. Any proposed revisions to this Agreement by either party shall be subject to written notice, and any agreed revision shall remain in force for at least 12 months before any further revision to the same provision can be proposed.

PART 1: SESSION MUSICIANS

1 ENGAGEMENT FEES

Session Musicians shall be paid an engagement fee under either 1.1 or 1.2 below.

1.1 Standard Engagement Fees

1.1.1 Standard engagement fees shall comprise a Call Fee for each Call Period, and a Performance Fee.

1.1.2 Call Fees

	Audio Content	Audio-Visual Content

2.4 Instrument Hire

When the BBC requires a Session Musician to hire instrument(s) all arrangements, including costs, must be approved in writing in advance by the BBC and any such approved costs incurred by the Musician shall be reimbursed by the BBC.

2.5 Travel Allowance

In accordance with BBC policy guidelines, Session Musicians shall be expected to meet the full cost of all journeys between their home and engagements in the city or town where they normally provide services. However, if they are required to travel to a location that is further away from their home than is their normal city or town where they provide services (the Session Musician's "Usual Base"), subject to prior agreement with the appropriate BBC representative, and provided it has been directly and exclusively incurred in connection with the BBC engagement, the BBC shall reimburse the actual cost (if any) of travel as follows:

Public Transport – All rail travel should be booked as standard class (any premium classes are not permitted) as per the BBC Expenses Policy

Travel by any other means: 25p per mile or BBC Staff rate of 30p for the first 10,000 miles, and 25p thereafter as per the BBC Expenses Policy

Any further adjustments as per the BBC Expenses Policy will apply during the course of this agreement.

2.6 Out of Town Engagements

A one-off supplementary payment of £26.50 shall be made to Session Musicians when they are required to attend to provide services at any time between the hours of 0000 and 0800.

2.8 Breaks

2.8.1 The BBC shall provide Session Musicians with a 15' break approximately midway through any session of 3 hours or more, such break to be extended on a pro-rata basis for any session longer than 3 hours.

2.8.2 The BBC shall, subject to any agreement with the Musician(s) to the contrary, provide a 1 hour break immediately prior to requiring Musician(s) to perform in a Live Session. No Call Fees shall be payable for this 1 hour break.

PART 2: MUSICIANS (INCLUDING ESTABLISHED SELF-CONTAINED GROUPS) ENGAGED TO PERFORM THEIR OWN REPERTOIRE

3 ENGAGEMENT FEES

An engagement fee payable under this Part Two shall comprise a Performance Fee only, which shall be deemed to include payment for any time on call, including rehearsals and any breaks.

3.1 Standard Performance Fees

Standard Performance Fees per Musician shall be determined as follows:

3.1.1 Recording Sessions:

by the duration of the Performance(s) required for later use in the Content;

- Each additional 30' (or part thereof) coverage in BBC Online Services is payable at the applicable Supplementary Filming Fee from Clause 8.2
- Where coverage on Radio Services exceeds 10' the applicable Audio Content rate from Clause 4.1 is payable, in addition to the Short Music Item Audio Visual Content fee.

PART 4: BBC PUBLIC CONCERTS (WITH A PAYING AUDIENCE)

5 ENGAGEMENT FEES

- 5.1 All Musicians including Orchestral Musician(s), Choral Musician(s) and Session Musician(s) (but excluding those specified in clause 5.2 below) shall be paid an engagement fee comprising a Public Concert Fee (negotiable) and a Performance Fee (as specified in clause 4.1 above). A Public Concert Fee is still required where there is no charge for an audience, unless musicians are paid under Standard Engagement Fees (Clause 1.1)
- 5.2 Musicians performing Chamber Music in groups of three or more shall be paid an engagement fee comprising a negotiated Public Concert Fee which shall be deemed to include a Performance Fee.

PART 5: CONSENTS AND GRANT OF RIGHTS

- 6.1 In consideration of payment of a Performance Fee Musician(s):
- 6.1.1 give consent to the BBC to:
 - a. record, broadcast or otherwise communicate their Performance(s) to the public;
 - b. conduct all technical tests required including but not limited to sound balance tests and camera rehearsals
 - c. make additional recordings (including both audio and audio-visual) of Performance(s), as required, for the purpose of producing BBC Content for promotional and publicity purposes;
 - 6.1.2 assign to the BBC all rights in the Performance(s) or otherwise created in the provision of the Services for all purposes (including use in all media now known or which may hereafter become known) throughout the Universe for the full period of protection for such rights and any extensions, revivals or renewals thereof (“the Rights”);
 - 6.1.3 grant the BBC the unlimited right to edit the Performance(s) and waive irrevocably any ‘moral rights’ in the Performance(s);
- 6.2 Exercise of the Rights and use of Performance(s) shall be subject to any further payments required by the following Parts.
- 6.3 The BBC’s right to authorise any third-party synchronisation of BBC Content is without prejudice to the right of the MU to negotiate and collect payment in relation to the Musicians Performance(s) contained within that BBC Content.

PART 6: PRIMARY USES

7 PRIMARY USES OF BBC CONTENT

The following uses are permitted by payment of a Performance Fee (save where only Restricted Primary Uses are permitted under clause 8 below):

7.1 BBC Public Service uses:

15 Royalties - General

15.1 The BBC can choose to make royalty payments for any and all Secondary Uses (except Repeat Broadcasts or for Commercial Audio Exploitation) as an alternative to Residual Buy-Out Fees.

15.2 Such royalties shall be:

15.2.1 calculated as the following percentage of the BBC's (as per "Definitions" below) gross income received by the BBC, or in the case of co-productions with third-parties, deemed gross receipts. However, in the case of Home Video Exploitation where BBC Worldwide/2Entertain (or other distributor associated with the BBC) or the BBC (including its licensees and assigns) is the distributor certain reasonable deductions as may be agreed with the MU; and 15.2.2 shared between the relevant Musicians, pro-rata according to their Residual Basic.

15.3 Following a royalty payment for a particular Secondary Use, the BBC may not then pay a Residual Buy-Out Fee to terminate royalty payments for the same Secondary Use without the prior consent of the MU.

15.4 Accounting (applicable to all forms of Commercial Exploitation except Home Video Exploitation):

The BBC shall account to the contracted party in respect of any royalty payments due under this Agreement as follows:

15.4.1 Television: royalty payments shall be paid to the contracted party no later than the end of the month following the month in which the BBC receives the gross receipts if the BBC or an associated or subsidiary company is the distributor. If a third party is the distributor, no later than the end of the month following the month in which the BBC is notified of the exploitation;

15.4.2 Commercial Audio Exploitation: royalty payments shall be accounted for in respect of the six-month periods to 30th June and 31st December following release and the corresponding payments shall be paid to the contracted party no later than three months from the end of the period to which they refer.

Unless specifically requested no payments shall be made in respect of any period in which the sum due to each Musician is less than £10 in which case the amount shall be carried forward to the next accounting period. The MU shall have the right to inspect BBC's financial records not more than once in any calendar year in order to verify the BBC's gross receipts, deductions made from such gross receipts and the calculation of royalties under this Agreement.

15.5 Accounting (applicable to Home Video Exploitation only):

All royalty payments due shall be paid on a six-monthly basis. For this purpose the BBC shall make payment in respect of Home Video Exploitation during each 6 month period after first making it available to the public, such payment to be made within three months of the end of the relevant six month period. Such payment shall be accompanied by a statement showing the sum(s) due and identifying the contributions incorporated in the video concerned. Unless specifically requested, no statement need be rendered nor payments made in respect of any six months' period in any year in which the sum due to the Musician is less than £10 in which case the amount shall be carried forward to the next accounting period.

16. Royalties – Payments

16.1 For Commercial Exploitation in the form of Music Product only

All BBC Content except for that specified below	17%
Opera, Concerts and Pop Music BBC Content containing Performance(s) given by performers engaged under both BBC/MU and BBC/Equity Agreements (e.g. Musicians and dancers) the royalty shall be shared in proportion to the Residual Basic of all such performers.	21%

16.2 For Commercial Exploitation (other than in the form of Music Product)

Commercial Exploitation		Royalty Rate
All except for Home Video Exploitation	Musicians who have already received a royalty under a previous MU TV Agreement at a rate of 5%	5%
	All other Musicians	4%
Home Video Exploitation (first release before 1st January 2005)	With Performer(s) engaged under the BBC/Equity Agreement	2%
	Without Performer(s) engaged under the BBC/Equity Agreement	4%
Home Video Exploitation (first release on or after 1 st January 2005)		4%

PART 9: BBC/MU PENSION SCHEME

- 17 On engagement by the BBC, a member of the BBC/MU Pension Scheme may elect to have contributions made to the BBC/MU Pension Scheme. Accordingly, on instruction from a Musician, contributions shall be remitted on a monthly basis to the BBC/MU Pension Fund.

The contributions shall be a percentage (as specified below) of the following payments:

- Call Fees or Public Concert Fees
- Overtime Fees
- Performance Fees
- Doubling Fees
- Overdubbing Fees

Musician's Contribution (deducted from Engagement Fees)	5%
BBC Contribution	7.5%

PART 10: CONTRACTORS

- 18 In consideration of procuring and supplying the services of Musician(s), the BBC shall make payment to a Contractor of an amount equal to 10% of Call Fees, Public Concert Fees, Overtime Fees, Performance Fees, Doubling Fees and Overdubbing Fees. In addition, a Contractor shall be due 10% of all Secondary Use payments. All payments due to Contractors under this Agreement are in addition to the fees and payments due to Musicians hereunder.

PART 11: NEWS ACCESS

- 19 The Musicians' Union warrants on behalf of its members that for the purposes of news reporting:
- 19.1 the BBC shall be entitled to have access to rehearsals and performances forming part of an existing engagement, for the purpose of making audio and/or audio-visual recordings subject to a maximum duration per news item, as follows:
- 19.1.1 featured performances: 1 minute, and
- 19.1.2 background use (i.e. incidental to the subject of the news item): 1 minute
- 19.1.3 For Local Radio packages: short extracts of more than one performance are permitted, subject to:
- a maximum of 30 seconds per artist/song in any one package
 - a maximum of 2 minutes filmed footage
- 19.2 written consents shall not be required from individual Musicians.
- 20 A Musician may request that their rehearsal or performance not be recorded and the BBC agrees not to record when so requested.
- 21 The BBC undertakes to complete recording of the rehearsal and/or performance within one hour from commencement of recording, however additional time shall be permitted for filming Cut-Aways and Long Shots.
- 22 The BBC shall not, for any reason, require a Musician to exceed the Services for which they are originally engaged, or to alter or repeat their performance.

PART 12: BBC STUDIOS

12.1 Musicians engaged by BBC Studios making content for first exploitation by any non-BBC Subsidiary shall be contracted on BBC/MU terms - MU/PACT rates, BBC acting as an Independent Producer.

For sake of Clarity, where BBC Studios make programmes for BBC Content, this agreement shall apply.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

23 Equal Opportunities

23.1 The Parties are committed to fair and non-discriminatory employment practices and will not unlawfully discriminate in the engagement of Contributors on grounds of their 'protected characteristics'. See here for full details <https://www.gov.uk/discrimination-your-rights/>

23.2 In order to promote and ensure fair and non-discriminatory employment practices the BBC recognises the value of, and is committed to, equality monitoring, including of on-screen talent and to publishing monitoring data as it becomes available as part of the project known as 'Diamond'.

24 Anti-bullying and Harassment

The BBC will not tolerate any form of bullying and/or harassment and is committed to providing a workplace in which the dignity of individuals is respected. Contributors engaged by the BBC will be required to agree that, whilst providing their services, they will not act in a way that could be regarded as bullying and/or harassment under the BBC's Bullying and Harassment Policy.

<https://intranet.gateway.bbc.co.uk/policy/Documents/BBC%20Bullying%20and%20Harassment%20Policy.pdf>

(or any replacement policy). Acts of bullying and/or harassment are regarded as a serious breach of contract and could place the continuation of engagements with the BBC at risk.

25 Backing Tracks

Where the BBC wishes to use a backing track it will determine whether the record company had, for recordings made prior to 1st June 2011, cleared backing track rights, by checking the position with the MU or the record company. If the BBC is advised that such backing track rights are not cleared, the BBC and the MU will liaise to agree a rate in good faith for such clearance.

26 Dubbing Agreement - for the dubbing of commercial audio recordings into BBC Content

26.1 The provisions of this clause 26 concern commercial audio recordings incorporating performances given by MU members under the terms and conditions agreed between the MU and the BPI and as applied by contract or agreement to other record producers.

26.2 Consent/Warranty/Grant of Rights

26.2.1 The BBC acknowledges that the incorporation of such recordings into BBC Content requires consent by or on behalf of the Musician(s) concerned

26.2.2 The MU warrants that it has been authorised by its members to grant consent to the copying of recordings of their performances on commercial audio recordings and that it may grant a non-exclusive licence in respect of such copying as far as the performer's Reproduction Right is concerned.

26.2.3 The MU on behalf of its members grants their consent (and as and when applicable grants a licence to the BBC and its licensees and assignees) to make such copies of the recordings of performances on commercial audio recordings as may be required in connection with and for:

- a. incorporation into Audio-Visual Content and/or Audio Content
- b. for all subsequent uses of such BBC Content throughout the world in all media now known or hereafter invented.

26.3 Indemnity

The MU hereby indemnifies the BBC against any liabilities, claims, demands, actions, costs, damages and loss arising from its copying of the recordings of performances and the subsequent use of such copies in accordance with this clause of this Agreement.

26.4 Special Terms – applying only to drama and comedy BBC Content (but excluding entertainment and children’s BBC Content)

26.4.1 Use as Signature Tune then consent from the MU must be obtained and, where appropriate, payment made in accordance with this Agreement

26.4.2 Miming to commercial audio recordings by on-screen characters: the prior consent of the MU is required

26.5 Dubbing Fund

In recognition of the rights granted under this clause 26 the BBC undertakes to maintain a fund known as the MU Dubbing Fund, from which it agrees to pay the following fees (plus VAT if applicable) subject to receipt of a satisfactory invoice:

BBC Dubbing Fee	Applicable to Period	Payable On
£350,000	01.10.2022 – 30.09.2023	01.04.2023
£350,000	01.10.2023 – 31.09.2024	01.04.2024
£350,000	01.10.2024 – 31.09.2025	01.04.2025

A further payment equal to the BBC Dubbing Fee agreed above for the period 1st October 2025 to 31st March 2026 is payable on 1 April each year that the agreement remains in force.

26.6 Reporting of BBC Dubbing

The BBC will in so far as it is reasonably able to, provide the MU with annual data regarding the usage of commercial audio recordings dubbed into Audio Visual Content after the date of this Agreement so that the MU may pay out at its discretion to musicians whose performances have been exploited.

26.7 The MU confirms that it will distribute the fund to qualifying performers in accordance with its published Royalty Distribution Policy, as amended from time to time.

27 Undertakings

- 27.1 The MU hereby confirms and agrees that it has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and it has not and shall not enter into any contract and/or arrangement with its members or with any third party that shall prevent the MU from fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement;
- 27.2 The BBC hereby confirms and agrees that has the full right and authority to enter into this Agreement and it has not and shall not enter into any contract and/or arrangement with any third party that shall prevent it from fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement.

28 Disputes Procedure

- 28.1 In the event of an unresolved dispute between an individual Musician and the BBC relating to this Agreement the following procedure shall be followed:
- 28.1.1 A meeting shall be held between appropriate representatives of the BBC and the MU (including the BBC producer of the production concerned) in order to resolve the issue;
- 28.1.2 failing settlement the issue shall be referred to a committee comprising of representatives of the BBC and the MU;
- 28.1.3 if no settlement can be reached the parties agree to refer the issue to a form of conciliation or arbitration to be mutually agreed or to ACAS.
- 28.2 In the event of a dispute arising between the MU and the BBC the matter shall in the first instance be dealt with by representatives of the parties. If there is any failure to agree a solution the parties shall agree a suitable forum for a formal mediation.

29 Quit Claim

- 29.1 Where in respect of performances contracted in accordance with this Agreement the Musician is exclusively entitled by law to receive from domestic or foreign collecting societies equitable remuneration or other forms of income additional to that arising under this Agreement nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the Musician from claiming such remuneration. The Musician shall not be obliged to account to the BBC for any such income to which the Musician is solely entitled.
- 29.2 (Without limitation to 29.1 above) it is acknowledged that the fees payable under this Agreement represent full, sufficient, reasonable and equitable remuneration for any and all rental and lending rights in respect of recordings of Performance(s) given in accordance with this Agreement.
- 29.3 The Musician shall make no claim against the BBC that shall arise from any failure by the Musician or any organisation that may represent the Musician to enter into any agreements with collecting societies or any failure on the part of such a society to make any payment to the Musician.
- 29.4 The BBC is authorised to disclose all necessary information about the Musician to a relevant collecting society so as to assist such collecting society to identify those entitled to receive the money it collects.

30 Miscellaneous

- 30.1 All fees and payments due in this Agreement are expressed exclusive of VAT. Where applicable (and subject to compliance with the BBC's procedural requirements for payment of VAT) the BBC shall make payment of VAT to the Musician.
- 30.2 It is acknowledged that the BBC's editorial control of BBC Content is final.
- 30.3 This Agreement is not intended to and does not create a legally-binding agreement between the parties and is binding upon them only in honour.
- 30.4 Nothing in this Agreement shall be deemed to constitute either party as the agent of the other party or create a partnership or joint venture between the parties.
- 30.5 No amendment to the terms of this Agreement shall be valid or binding unless made by prior written agreement between the parties and signed by their authorised representatives in accordance with (B) (iii) of this Agreement.
- 30.6 The unenforceability of any particular provision(s) of this Agreement shall not affect any other provisions of this Agreement.
- 30.7 This Agreement sets out the entire understanding of the parties in relation to its subject matter and supersedes all prior arrangements negotiations and discussions between the parties relating thereto.
- 30.8 The headings of the clauses of this Agreement are provided for reference only and shall not limit or affect the meaning or interpretation of the said clauses.
- 30.9 Any notice required to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing delivered, or posted to the address of the relevant party set out in this Agreement or such other address as may be notified in writing to the other party from time to time. Any such notice given as aforesaid shall be deemed given or received at the time of delivery (if delivered by hand) or 2 working days after sending (if sent by post or e-mail) subject to any evidence to the contrary.
- 30.10 Any reference to any legislation in this Agreement shall include any subsequent amendment or replacement of such legislation.
- 30.11 Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige the BBC to make payment for any uses that are acts permitted in relation to copyright works or performers rights under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (as amended).
- 30.12 Neither party shall be liable for any failure to fulfil its obligations hereunder caused by Acts of God, strikes, lockouts, war, riot, civil commotion, Order or Act of Parliament or any other event beyond its reasonable control.
- 30.13 This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with English Law.
