	Pre-teach essential vocabulary	10	Elicit/present key vocabulary that students need either to understand the key points in the text or to understand and/or answer any questions that you'll set them later in the lesson. The vocabulary is from Words in the News (so you can elicit the vocabulary by using the explanations provided online or below). You could either pre-teach the vocabulary at this stage of the lesson or you could use the vocabulary building activity from further down in this lesson plan. Have students working in small groups together and ask them to try to match the vocabulary with the definitions. Encourage them to work with the other groups to pool their knowledge. When they have done as much as they can, if they have dictionaries, ask them to look up the words to check their answers and to find out the definitions of any words they were not sure of. If they don't have dictionaries, check their answers

	Activity	Approx time in mins	Teacher	Boardwork
	Grammar focus	5 - 10	Use worksheet C to focus on words that go together with 'play', 'make' or 'do'. Tell students to put the words into the correct column depending on which verb is used with each word/s.
	Check answers	3	If an answer is wrong, ask other students to try to elicit correct answer. (see worksheet C and answer key)
	Follow-up activity: writing	15	Tell students there are going to be radio reporters filing a report about Oscar night. With the whole class, brainstorm what information they are going to include in their reports (for example, who is there, what films and/or actors are attending the ceremony, what the stars are wearing, who the winners are etc.). Put the students into pairs and get them to work together to produce a report of 100 – 150 words. They should choose where they are reporting from (beside the red-carpet, during the ceremony, when it's all over, or the next day) and who their audience is (do they work for a young radio station, a local station, the World Service etc?). Give them 3 – 4 minutes to brainstorm and 10 minutes to prepare their reports Circulate, while they are working, giving help with grammar and spelling, if necessary.
	Feedback		If possible, display the finished reports around the room and/or ask some of the students to read their reports to the class.
